GENERAL ORDERS
No. 11

HEADQUARTERS
DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON, DC, 17 January 1997

REALIGNMENT OF CIVILIAN PERSONNEL AND ASSOCIATED FUNCTIONS

1. This General Order implements changes within the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Manpower and Reserve Affairs. These changes affect assets already under ASA(MRA) command, but currently under the operational control of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations and Plans.

2. Effective 1 October 1996, the title of UIC W1YNAA, is changed to the U.S. Army Manpower Analysis Agency (USAMAA).

3. Effective 1 October 1996, operational control of the Special Actions Division of the U.S. Army Force Integration Support Agency (UIC W4PCAA) is transferred to USAMAA (UIC W1YNAA), an agency of OASA(MRA).

4. Effective 1 October 1996, all resources associated with the Special Actions Division of the U.S. Army Force Integration Support Agency (UIC W4PCAA) are transferred to USAMAA (UIC W1YNAA), an agency of OASA(MRA). USAMAA will continue to provide support to ODCSOPS and all other Departmental staff elements.

5. Associated resources, as used in the above paragraph, are defined as all authorizations, workyears, military and civilian personnel, high grade allocations, and administrative support staff and related dollars, as well as other resources (e.g., contracts, TDY, training, pay, equipment, communications and automation support, current physical space, fund transfers, and other O&M support) as of 1 October 1994. Methodology to identify all direct OASA(MRA) resources for program, budget, and allocation shall be established. Resolution authority resides with the ASA(MRA).
