

Office of the Provost Marshal General

Mission, Responsibilities and Programs & Initiatives

Assist

STRATEGIC INITIATIVES GROUP

Mission -- The Strategic Initiatives Group (SIG) ensures integration across all of the Provost Marshal General's (PMG) roles and responsibilities to include the Office of the Provost Marshal General, United States Army Criminal Investigation Command, Army Corrections Command and Defense Forensics and Biometrics Agency, and serves as the immediate action agent for short suspense requirements and responses to the Secretariat and Army Staff. Additionally, the SIG coordinates and synchronizes actions across the Office of the Secretary of Defense, Joint Staff, Army Staff, and Army Commands to formulate and communicate the PMG's position on policing, investigative, corrections, biometrics and forensics matters.

Responsibilities and Programs

- Action group for short suspense, high profile taskings and requirements
- Ensure integration between OPMG, CID, ACC, DFBA and other Army strategic initiatives groups, as well as across OPMG divisions

Protect

- Maintain Executive Office long-range calendar
- Provide expertise and support to PMG on specified initiatives and strategic engagements
 - Coordinate and complete travel, conference, and event briefings and speeches
 - Organize annual Military Police Senior Leader Conference
- Represent OPMG in Total Army Analysis
- Develop and disseminate strategic communications
- Provide OPMG oversight to the Health Promotion and Risk Reduction Council process, and the Ready and Resilient Campaign
- Bridge Army-wide criminal information sharing functions (Crime Reports, Gold Book, Health / Discipline of the Force)
- Coordinate and synchronize efforts with the United States Army Military Police School located at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri
- OPMG point of contact for Congressional Action Control
- Oversight of the OPMG Knowledge Management program

Defend

Initiatives

- Army Headquarters Transformation
- Leadership professional development program
- Ready and Resilient Campaign Plan
- SharePoint Portal updates and organizational website redesign

(Click to return to OPMG Website)

