

Brigadier General Jeremiah P. Holland Award

Brigadier General Jeremiah P. Holland initiated an award that is presented to a company or smaller element in the Military Police Corps to promote esprit de corps and recognition for the unit that has displayed true excellence. The award is based on the total unit accomplishment and success over a 12-month period. The selected unit would be considered the "Best Organization" within the Military Police Corps. The first award was presented on 26th of September 1970 and the tradition has continued to this very day.
