

SMA Visits Kandahar Transcript

CPL FLYNN: Sergeant Major of the Army Raymond Chandler recently made his way to Afghanistan as part of his trip to engage servicemembers on issues of importance.

SMA: My job is to be a scout. I go out and seek contact with Soldiers and I deliver an Army message. But, more importantly, I want to hear what's on their minds.

CPL FLYNN: The Sergeant Major of the Army visited several forward operating bases throughout Regional Command South, holding town hall meetings to provide Soldiers the opportunity to voice their concerns and receive feedback.

SOLDIER: The SMA got a chance to talk to a lot of our Soldier and answer their personal questions. It's really convenient for Soldiers to pose those questions and actually get a straight forward answer from him. I'm glad I had the opportunity and thought it went well.

CPL FLYNN: Reporting from Kandahar Air Field, I'm Army Cpl. Alex Flynn.
