

TRADOC NOW: Stand Strong Transcript

NARRATOR : The Army Profession inspires Soldiers, Army Civilians, and Family members to Stand Strong by taking responsibility for their own conduct, for confronting misconduct, and for not tolerating any incident that demeans an individual's dignity and worth.

SMA CHANDLER: "To be worthy of the Trust of the American People and to earn and sustain the trust of those on our left and right, we must not only be competent in what we do, we must be men and women of character, living by the Army Values, doing what is right, even when no one is looking. We must also be committed to the Army, our leaders, our fellow Soldiers and the policies of our Army. "
