SELF STORAGE

While in Afghanistan on my fourth deployment, I was stationed at Forward Operating Base Findlay-Shields, which was one of the safest locations I'd been over the past 10 years. The FOB was just across the street from Jalalabad, and nothing much happened there during my entire stay — except for that one day.

ATTENTION TO DETAIL

It is something we have all heard stories about — taking off and forgetting something on preflight or through-flight until someone remembers because of a procedure or something being said. Well, it finally happened to our crew.

WHERE RUBBER MEETS THE ROAD

While traveling the nation's highways, how often do you see pieces of tire and tread belts along the sides of the road? So how do we keep our tires from becoming part of this road debris? The answer is vehicle tire maintenance.

BE WHAT'S RIGHT

The Face of Indiscipline
Discipline is a key component of the Army's mission. It is the standard by which we measure our performance. It is the standard by which we hold ourselves and our units accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our leaders accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our nation accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our world accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our future accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our legacy accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our honor accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our pride accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our respect accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our integrity accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our character accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our courage accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our faith accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our hope accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our love accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our mercy accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our kindness accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our gentleness accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our patience accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our self-control accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our humility accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our meekness accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our peace-loving nature accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our kindness accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our gentleness accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our patience accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our self-control accountable. It is the standard by which we hold our humility accountable.
