DIVINE INTERVENTION

There comes a time in an adult's life when you just want to say, "What were you thinking?" That's exactly what I said one July morning after reading a young Soldier's Facebook posts. I can't say I didn't participate in risky activities back in my younger days, but this article isn't about my past behavior. I'd like to share with you something I struggled with that may have saved a life.

CONVOY TRAGEDY

As the convoy neared completion, only one remaining M1114 needed to be driven to the new location. Because of a shortage of personnel, the entire crew, from what I gathered, had never driven outside the forward operating base.

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT

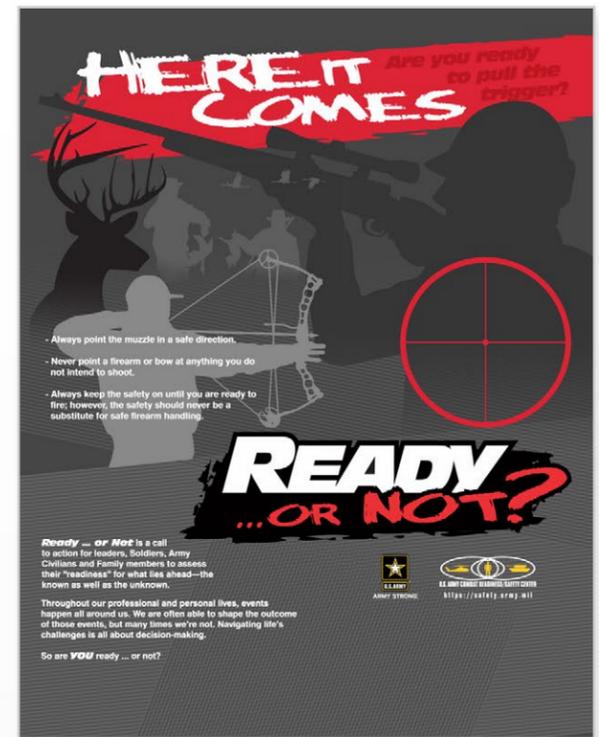

I think every pilot has a story to share about something foolish they did as a young aviator. Most of us are now older and wiser and might not want to mention some of the things we did in the past. I, however, see value in sharing these mistakes.
