HARD HABIT TO BREAK

Without thinking, I found myself about to run a red light. For a moment, I thought I was back in Iraq. It took me a second to remember I wasn't — that I was now home in the states. My wife, who was sitting next to me, calmly said, "What are you doing? You're about to cause an accident!" Looking in my rearview mirror, I noticed a police car. I'd only been back from Iraq for 24 hours and was about to cause an accident and get a ticket.

ALL EARS

Selecting appropriate hearing protection can be daunting. You want something that is comfortable, easy to use and fits well. Unfortunately, there is no perfect device that does it all, but tips are available for selecting appropriate hearing protection.

SHOPPING FOR WEATHER

It was a typical day in Iraq. I woke up with the taste of dust in my mouth, which usually meant bad weather had moved into the area. I was pretty disappointed because that probably meant I would not fly.
