OFFICIAL SAFETY MAGAZINE OF THE U.S. ARMY

THIS WEEK 14-18 DEC 2015

THE COLD, HARD FACTS

As a Soldier today, you are neither poorly trained nor poorly equipped, nor are you lacking caring leaders. So why bother writing about cold weather injuries? Unfortunately, it's because they continue to happen, even though they are preventable. The equipment issued to you, when used and maintained properly, will allow you to fight and win in even the most austere environments.

SAVED BY THE HELMET

By the time Nicolas Laboy slammed on his motorcycle brakes, it was already too late. The Honda CBR 600 wobbled hard and fell over, and Nicolas skidded across the road until he and the bike crunched against the pickup truck.

WHO'S FLYING THE AIRCRAFT?

Our SP and commander decided the best place for me was on one of our night shifts at a time of day when the enemy was less active, allowing me to get more experience. It was on one of these early morning flights that I nearly killed us.

DID YOU KNOW?

Slips, trips and falls happen too often during the winter months.
