OFFICIAL SAFETY MAGAZINE OF THE U.S. ARMY

THIS WEEK 21-31 DEC 2015

I'LL BE HOME FOR CHRISTMAS ... MAYBE

As I drove down the highway, I started to nod off intermittently. I thought about pulling into a rest stop for some sleep, but I wanted to get home. I rolled down my driver's window for fresh air and poured a cup of coffee from my thermos. As I finished my coffee, the weather started clearing and traffic speed increased. The next thing I remember was waking up as my truck was drifting off the right side of the highway.

STRESS IN THE COCKPIT

If you're an Army aviator, do you know why it's important to recognize the signs of fatigue and significant events in your life or the lives of the other Soldiers in your unit? I do. This is my story.

TALKING TRASH

There I was — right in the middle of all the action as the 101st Airborne Division rolled through Iraq to remove Saddam Hussein from power. As dramatic as that may sound, we also did a lot of uninteresting tasks during my time in Iraq, such as trash disposal.

DID YOU KNOW?

Don't put your life — or the lives of others — in danger.

SAFETY FEATURE

HERE IT COMES

Remember to wear your seat belt and buckle up — are you ready?

- Drink driving involves a 100 percent probability. If you make one smart decision.
- Designate a sober driver before celebrations begin, or call a taxi or other friend or family member to pick you up.

READY ... OR NOT?

Always — get ahead in a call to action for leaders, leaders, Army. Challenge and Faculty members to answer their "readiness" for what they believe the future will be.

Throughout our professional and personal lives, events happen all around us. We are often able to shape the outcome of those events. But every time we're out, navigating life's challenges is all about decision-making.

So are you ready ... or not?
