* In Accordance With Assistant Secretary of Defense Memorandum dated 19 Mar 2015, Policy Clarification for Priority 1 Access to Department of Defense Child Development Programs

Note:

In order to provide seamless service to families, children enrolled in CYSS are transitioned first when moving from one program to another based on age or program requirements. After transitions within CYSS programs occur, the waitlist is reviewed and available spaces are offered.

Eligibility:

Eligible patrons of DoD CDPs include active duty military personnel, DoD civilian personnel paid from either appropriated funds (APF) or non-appropriated funds (NAF), Reserve Component military personnel on active duty or inactive duty training status, combat related wounded warriors, surviving spouses of Military members who died from a combat related incident, those acting in loco parentis for the dependent child of an otherwise eligible patron, eligible employees of DoD contractors. In addition, others may be authorized on a space available basis.
