OFFICIAL SAFETY MAGAZINE OF THE U.S. ARMY

THIS WEEK 11-15 APRIL 2016

A SENSELESS LOSS

As a brigade sport bike and senior battalion motorcycle mentor, scores of Soldiers have asked me for advice about becoming a motorcyclist. Of these, one Soldier in particular stands out.

NEVER TRUST A TURTLE

First, it doesn't matter how comfortable you are in the great outdoors. One lapse in judgment can turn a seemingly serene situation into a disaster.

STAY WITH STANDARDS

We always expect Soldiers to do the right thing and execute accordingly in the absence of orders. The Soldiers, not the officers, are the driving force behind unmanned flight operations in today's Army.

DID YOU KNOW?

You asked for it! After multiple requests from the field, KNOWLEDGE readers once again have the ability to print entire issues of their favorite monthly online Army safety magazine. Just visit the Knowledge website at <https://safety.army.mil/knowledge>, scroll down to the Print Entire Issue header on the left side of the page and click the link to the month you'd like to print. Your feedback is important to us, so please let us know how you like this new printing feature or to share any ideas how Knowledge can better serve our readers.

SAFETY FEATURE

READY ... OR NOT?

Ready ... OR NOT? is a call to action for leaders, Soldiers, Army Civilians and Family members to assess their readiness for what lies ahead - both the known and unknown.

Throughout our professional and personal lives, events happen all around us. We are often able to shape the outcome of those events, but many times we're not. Navigating life's challenges is all about decision-making.

So are YOU ready ... or not?
