

Clackamas Community Covenant Our Pledge to Military Families

May 15, 2009

Clackamas Community College is committed to:

Honorary Citizen
Congresswoman Darlene Hooley
U.S. Representative 1997-2009

Assisting military members and all veterans with employment, education, and reintegration services.

Creating new initiatives and partnerships to expand services and support to military members, veterans, and their families.

President Joanne Truesdell
Clackamas Community College

Clackamas County is committed to:

Commissioner Jim Bernard
Clackamas County

Providing free assistance to veterans and their families advocating for state and federal VA benefits.

Working with business and community partners to connect veterans to employment, services, and programs to ensure veterans are a vibrant, respected and well-served community within Clackamas County.

Mayor Alice Norris
Oregon City

The City of Oregon City is committed to:

Honorable Charles L. Deibert
Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army

Working seamlessly with other government partners to connect Oregon City veterans and military family members with critical information for support and assistance throughout the deployment cycle.

Creating a welcoming transition environment for returning City of Oregon City employees and their families.

Fair and legal employment practices that encourage and protect our returning military members.

Brigadier General Bruce Prunk
Oregon Military Department

The Department of the Army, the Oregon National Guard, the Army Reserve and the State of Oregon recognize:

COL Mark Rathburn
OSMS General Foreman and Camp
Withycombe Commander

Oregonians serving the Oregon National Guard, the U.S. Army on Active Duty, and in the Army Reserve have contributed greatly to the welfare of both our state and our nation.

The strength of our service members from all branches comes from the strength of their families and the communities they call home.

Honorable Bill Kennemer
State of Oregon Representative

Camp Withycombe and the Oregon Sustainment Maintenance Site are committed to:

Honorable Martha Schrader
State of Oregon Senator

Writing and e-mailing deployed full-time employees once each week until they return home.

Initiating an "Adopt a Family" program and contacting military families once a month as an active part of their support group.

Chair Chandra Brown
Pacific Northwest Defense
Coalition

Oregon Legislative Leaders are committed to:

Maj. Gen. (Ret.) Curtis A. Loop
President Columbia River Chapter,
Association of the United States Army, and Army Reserve
Ambassador for Oregon

Creating veteran friendly legislation that recognizes the sacrifices and needs of service members and their families.

Building support for service members and units within their districts.

Ensuring service members receive employment protection.

Removing barriers to military families in accessing state and local services and resources.

Maj. Gen. (Ret.)
Daniel F. Hitchcock
Vice Chairman for Operations,
Oregon Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve, and Army Reserve Ambassador
for Oregon

Pacific Northwest Defense Coalition is committed to:

Providing essential equipment resources for our military members.
