THE ARMY STORY

America's greatest generations are built on the strength of America's strongest citizens – U.S. Soldiers. Just as the Army is the Strength of the Nation, Soldiers are the strength of our Army, and our Families are the strength of our Soldiers. We are a profession of arms, bonded together by a bedrock of Trust. We will sustain our high quality All-Volunteer Force – Active, Guard and Reserve.

THE ARMY STORY

U.S. Army history is marked by decisive action in a range of missions in defense of this great Nation. As we transition to a leaner, more agile force, America's Army will remain the best manned, best equipped, best trained, best led and most decisive land force in the world.

Meeting the Needs of the Nation

“Anything we can do to decrease our expenditures, that’s good for the Army, good for the taxpayers, and equally important in that we want to be responsible stewards of the environment.”
