SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS
COMPETITION

SUMMARY OF CHANGE

● Addition of Visual Information Categories

A. Department of the Army point of contact is SFC Lashaundra D. Shaw at (301) 677-7282 or lashaundra.d.shaw.mil@mail.mil.

B. Entries must be received at Headquarters, Department of the Army by FEBRUARY 24, 2017. Late submissions, direct submissions from subordinate units, installations and individuals, and submissions lacking required documentation will not be judged.

C. With the exception of community relations and some print categories, submit all entries as URL links. Do not submit physical media such as discs or printed newspapers. All competitors will direct submission questions to the POC in their command hierarchy.

D. The entry form is available via the competition website at http://www.army.mil/klw/. The 2016 KLW website will go live no later than Dec. 16, 2016. Detailed entry processes will be posted at the address and provided to Major Army command POCs via email. Obtain signatures on memorandums and other documents required for specific categories from leaders familiar with organizational command information operations and the personnel conducting them. Examples include public affairs officers, PA officers in charge and Command Information chiefs, but not officers commanding headquarters elements not directly involved in PA operations. All entries and supporting documents must include a complete, verified and official mailing address. Army Commands, Army Service Component Commands and Direct Reporting Unit POCs will validate entries via a submission log sent directly to HQDA KLW POC.

E. Submit Department of Defense, Defense Media Activity or joint command civilian and unit entries through DMA rather than DA competition channels. Soldiers serving with DMA organizations remain eligible for the KLW competition in individual categories and will submit through DMA Army channels.

F. The SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship is a competition open to all Active, Reserve and National Guard NCOs in the ranks of sergeant to sergeant major with a CMF 46 primary MOS. A special panel selected by the SGM of Army PA will judge all scholarship submissions. The submission deadline and results announcement coincide with the KLW timeline. The award will be presented at the AUSA Annual Meeting and Exposition in Washington, D.C. See Appendix E for details.
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS COMPETITION

G. Only MACOMs, ASCCs, DRUs and other units listed in Appendix B are eligible to host a command-level competition and forward products directly to the MG Keith L. Ware Communications Competition. All other units must submit entries through their command hierarchy.

H. Please be advised the most senior award in the DoD’s consolidated award program is the Defense Communicator of the Year Award. This is a separate and distinct category from all others which requires specific submission criteria outlined in the VI section of the DA and DoD SOPs. Please understand that winning any other category does not constitute an automatic entry to the DoD’s Defense Communicator of the Year Award. Military and civilian PA and VI members are eligible to compete in this category. Please refer to category criteria and the DMA Awards Guidance for additional requirements.

I. Graphics, photos, and video products must conform to the DoD Instruction 5040.02, “Visual Information” and be captioned with metadata in accordance with the DoD Captioning Style Guide.

J. Unless otherwise noted in the criteria, all categories are open to all DA PA and VI civilians and Soldiers. Most awards are open to all. A few are specific to PA or VI. The category headings in this SOP are solely to keep “like” items together. Please do not let a category heading dissuade you from entering a category simply because it says Print, Broadcast or Visual Information. If you have a competitive product and meet the criteria, enter to compete.

The MG Keith L. Ware Communications Competition recognizes Soldiers and Department of the Army civilian employees for excellence in achieving the objectives of the Army Public Affairs Program. On behalf of the Secretary of the Army, the Office of the Chief of Public Affairs conducts the competition annually in order to recognize, cultivate and inspire excellence within the Army public affairs community.

This standard operating procedure aligns the KLW competition as closely as possible with the new Defense Media Awards Program, establishes competition criteria and provides the Army with guidance for recognizing the most notable work of its public affairs and visual information professionals. The competition includes the Department of the Army Community Relations Awards Program of Excellence and SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship.

Competition dates: Materials submitted for the competition must have been published, aired or posted between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31, 2016.

I. Eligibility

A. This year’s competition recognizes work in print, broadcast, visual information, and three community relations categories. In addition, information for the SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship can be found in Appendices E/F.

B. The competition is designed for Career Management Field/Functional Area 46-series Soldiers and DA public affairs civilians assigned to PA positions. However, all Soldiers assigned to PA or VI units, offices and sections during the contest year, whose primary duties are to produce command or visual information products, may also enter the competition. This includes CMF 25-series Soldiers holding visual information military occupational specialties as well as VI civilians. All work must be published, broadcast or produced under the authority of Army Regulation 360-1, the Army Public Affairs Program, in order to compete.

C. Soldiers must meet Army height and weight standards as outlined in AR 600-9, The Army Body Composition Program and reflect the Army Values in order to participate. Soldiers flagged at any point during the judging and presentation period are ineligible to receive awards. MACOM, ASCC, and DRU POCs are responsible for informing the HQDA KLW POC of any change in status.
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS
COMPETITION

D. Members of other services and civilians serving in DoD, DMA, and joint commands may not enter the KLW competition. DoD, DMA, and joint command civilian and unit products participate in the DMA, not the KLW, competition. Army personnel serving on staffs of unified and specified command publications and broadcasts, as well as DMA joint-service publications and broadcasts, remain eligible for competition in all individual categories.

E. Government contract employees are not authorized to compete in any individual category.

F. Entries produced with the assistance of government contract employees are eligible in unit categories. However, in accordance with the Federal Acquisition Regulation, contract employees will not be recognized individually for their contributions or receive awards or certificates. Do not list them as “significant contributors” on entry forms.

G. Personnel assigned to Stars & Stripes are ineligible for the KLW competition. However, work produced in the contest year prior to or following a Stars & Stripes assignment remains eligible.

H. Army Reserve, National Guard and Reserve Officer Training Corps personnel are eligible to compete in all categories provided they meet category qualifications.

   (1) Forward Army Reserve entries to Mr. Byron B. Martin of U.S. Army Reserve Command. Mr. Martin can be reached at byron.b.martin.civ@mail.mil or (910) 570-8152 or Mr. Timothy L. Hale at timothy.l.hale.civ@mail.mil or (910) 570-8149.

   (2) Forward National Guard entries to SGM Bryan Rotherham of the National Guard Bureau. SGM Rotherham can be reached at bryan.c.rotherham.mil@mail.mil or (703) 607-0967.

   (3) Forward ROTC entries to Mr. Michael Maddox of Cadet Command. Mr. Maddox can be reached at james.m.maddox.civ@mail.mil or (502) 624-4904.

I. Korean Augmentees to the U.S. Army may compete as teammates in unit categories and be listed as “significant contributors” on entry forms. KATUSAs may not compete in individual categories.

J. Personnel who transition to another unit during the contest year may submit work produced for a previous organization through their new command in individual categories. But each participant can submit through only one command or DRU. Soldiers and civilians who transition out of government service are ineligible to compete.

K. The following products are not eligible to compete: civilian enterprise guides and directories, yearbooks, cruise books, publications and productions funded by non-appropriated funds, and educational, training or motivational videos or films.
II. Awards

A. Each category will have a first place and honorable mention selected. Those selected, including significant contributors, will receive a MG Keith L. Ware Certificate of Excellence signed by the Chief of Public Affairs, and their commands will receive a standard award recommendation for the individual.

B. Recommenders can list a maximum of five individuals as “significant contributors” to potential unit awards on each entry form. These should be staff members who contributed significantly and consistently to the team enterprise. Each “significant contributor” will receive a MG Keith L. Ware Certificate of Excellence signed by the Chief of Public Affairs if the unit entry wins first place or honorable mention.

C. Recipients of all top honors, journalist of the year, broadcast journalist of the year, outstanding new writer, outstanding new broadcaster and Kathy Canham-Ross awards etc., will receive a trophy, and their commands will receive a standard award recommendation for the individual. Top honor recipients will be invited to receive their awards at the annual Public Affairs Leadership Development Forum or other appropriate DA level recognition ceremony.

D. First-place winners in multiple individual categories, to include the top honors, will receive individual recognition for each achievement, and their commands will receive a standard award recommendation encapsulating all the individual’s achievements.

E. OCPA’s Resource Management Division and KLW POC will process and mail all awards and certificates within 60 days of the announcement of the results. MACOM, ASCC, and DRU POCs are responsible for informing the HQDA KLW POC of any change in awardees’ status, rank, name or address changes.

III. Entries and Judging

A. Entries

(1) Only designated points of contact will submit entries.

   a. Detailed submission instructions for POCs will be posted at http://www.army.mil/klw/

   b. All entries will use forms and documents located at http://www.army.mil/klw/
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS COMPETITION

c. POCs will transmit their organization’s KLW submissions using a location designated on the DVIDS website. Specific upload instructions will be provided to POCs one month prior to judging in a FRAGO format as well as on social media and through email.

d. Entry forms and any required supporting documentation will use the following file naming convention for folders and files (IAW DMA naming conventions). Use your MACOM acronym followed by an underscore, JCAT, BCAT or VCAT for print, broadcast, or visual information entry followed by an underscore, what category the entry is followed by an underscore, USA for branch of service, description of the file: entry form, scholarship memo, eligibility memo, etc. followed by an underscore, and the file extension.

i. Example: FORSCOM_JCAT_K_USA_photograph.jpg or FORSCOM_JCAT_K_USA_entryform.jpg
   1. MACOM
   2. J = journalism
   3. Category K
   4. U.S. Army
   5. File description
   6. File extension type

ii. Create a folder for each entry with the same naming conventions, minus the file description and file extension. File submission folder/documents IAW instructions from KLW facilitators. Example: FORSCOM_JCAT_K_USA

e. Community relations category submissions: Submit all entries as URL links on the entry form. It is the responsibility of the command POCs to validate the link and to ensure it is accessible on Army government computers. Do not submit physical media such as discs or printed newspapers. For categories requiring submissions in “.pdf” format, the HQDA KLW POC will provide technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs.

f. Print category submissions: MACOM, ASCC, and DRU POCs will forward .pdf files of memorandums and supporting documents using the same method used for community relations and publications categories.

g. Broadcast category submissions: Submit all entries as URL links on the entry form. It is the responsibility of the command POCs to validate the link and to ensure it is accessible on Army government computers. Do not submit physical media such as discs or tapes. The HQDA KLW POC will provide technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs, for categories requiring submissions in “.mp3” and “.mp4” type formats.

h. Visual Information category submissions: Submit all entries as URL links on the entry form. It is the responsibility of the command POCs to validate the link and to ensure it is accessible on Army government computers. Do not submit physical media such as discs or tapes. The HQDA KLW POC will provide technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs, for categories requiring submissions in “.mp3” and “.mp4” type formats.

(2) Print, broadcast, and visual information entries must be authorized products released, published, posted and/or broadcast in one or more communication means available for public consumption. All submissions must be approved by the proper release authority.
All mediums must be an official Army, DoD or DMA platform, or a registered external official presence under the authority of DoDI 8550.01. Some examples of acceptable platforms are “army.mil”, “dvidshub.net”, “dodlive.mil”, official Facebook, Flickr, and YouTube pages and accounts registered with OCPA OSMD. Unregistered social media sites will disqualify an entry.

(3) With the exception of FORSCOM, IMCOM, DMA, NGB and USARC, all MACOMs, ASCCs, and DRUs may submit one first-place entry from the field in each category directly to DA level. FORSCOM, IMCOM, DMA, NGB and USARC are authorized to submit more depending on the category. See sections VI and VIII for details.

(4) All MACOMs, ASCCs and DRUs must provide a submission log that lists all entries in the DA-level competition. See the KLW website for an example.

(5) No entry may be submitted through two different commands.

(6) Deployed National Guard and Army Reserve Soldiers should enter their individual submissions through their respective commands, not FORSCOM or USARCENT.

(7) Submit DMA civilian and unit broadcast entries through DMA, not KLW, channels.

B. Preliminary Judging and Forwarding of Entries

(1) All applicants submit entries through their MACOM, ASCC or DRU POCs. Entries are judged within their commands, and winning entries move on to the DA level. Only command POCs submit to DA. All entries must arrive to DA by Feb. 24, 2017. DA does not accept direct submissions from subordinate units, installations or individuals.
(2) Entries must be authorized and produced for command information purposes, published, broadcast or posted during the contest time period. No part of any product entered may be entered in subsequent KLW competitions.

(3) MACOM, ASCC and DRU POCs will submit all entries as URL links. It is the responsibility of the command POCs to validate the links and ensure they are accessible on commercial networks and Army government computers. Do not submit physical media. The HQDA KLW POC will provide additional technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs for categories requiring submission in “.pdf”, “.mp3” and “.mp4” formats.

(4) MACOMs, ASCCs and DRUs should judge internal contests according to the same procedures and criteria as DA.

C. Entry Forms

(1) Examples of correct entry forms and any other required supporting documents can be found in winning entries of last year’s competition on the microsite at http://www.army.mil/klw/.

(2) All entries must use the official KLW entry form (Appendix A) located at http://www.army.mil/klw/. Responsibility for any errors resulting from the use of improper or outdated forms (such as incorrect certificates due to incomplete contact or personal data) rests with individuals, not DA or DOD competition managers.

(3) Names will appear on certificates and citations as they appear on the entry forms. To avoid errors, use the correct entry form, provide complete information, type out names and unit designations. Do not use organizational nicknames or acronyms.

(4) DA contest facilitators will attempt to resolve administrative issues before disqualifying an entry. However, ultimate responsibility rests with entrants, units and POCs. Address any issue as soon as possible.

NOTE: Responsibility for certificate, citation and administrative errors resulting from late, incomplete or incorrect information provided by units or commands rests solely with the organizations and their headquarters. If they wish to produce new certificates reflecting more accurate or complete information they must do so at their own expense. DA will facilitate the replacement of materials only when mistakes by HQDA KLW personnel resulted in the creation of inaccurate or defective products.
D. DA KLW Judging Panel

(1) Judges may include distinguished CMF/FA 46/25 senior noncommissioned officers, officers and civilians in each respective field. Entries will be judged on overall professional excellence. Judges will score entries on a scale of zero (lowest) through 10 (highest).

(2) No ties are allowed. Judges may designate no more than one first-place winner and one honorable mention. If no first-place winner is selected, no honorable mention will be selected.

(3) Judges may decide not to name a winner in a category if they decide no submission meets KLW standards for an award-winning entry.

(4) Judges’ decisions are reviewed by the Chief of Public Affairs, who retains discretion for final approval and authority for release of results and other contest information.

(5) Judging criteria and DA grading sheets are also available on the KLW microsite at http://www.army.mil/klw/submissions/information.html. Command POCs are encouraged to apply DA standards and judging criteria during their internal competitions.

E. Results

(1) The Office of the Chief of Public Affairs will announce competition winners promptly after judging. First-place winners in categories aligned with the Defense Media Awards will represent the Army in the Defense Media Awards for calendar year 2016.

IV. DA Community Relations Awards Submission Guidelines

A. The Community Relations Awards recognize outstanding achievements in the realm of community relations by public affairs professionals throughout the Army. All military and civilian participants in Army public affairs programs are eligible and encouraged to participate.

(1) Submissions must include a KLW entry form and follow the procedures below.

(2) Limit packets to 20 total printed pages of conventional type size (no smaller than 10 point). Include written synopses of broadcast coverage, if necessary.

(3) Submission packets must include all the listed materials in each category.
(4) Command POCs must annotate all entries on their submission log and ensure any additional documentation required for each entry accompanies the submission.

V. DA Community Relations Awards Categories

Category A: Individual Achievement

1. Name, position and duty description of the entrant
2. Table of contents
3. Letter of endorsement from unit or installation PAO
4. Letter of endorsement from installation or major unit headquarters
5. Summary of the entrant’s role in the mission under consideration
6. Planning: describe the individual’s planning process, communication objectives, key findings and budget analysis, as appropriate.
7. Execution: provide details of the individual’s execution of mission(s).
8. Effectiveness: describe what the individual achieved. Concrete evidence of success and achievement of stated goals will strengthen the packet.
9. Overall value to the Army: describe the importance of the individual’s work, how it benefitted the organization, the community and the Army, and how its costs compared to its benefits.
10. Entries may also be supported with internal and external media accounts of the individual’s achievements, and relevant feedback from participants, leaders and impacted members of the community. Don’t include routine administrative documents or slide shows. Summarize internal coordination if necessary and appropriate in the “Planning” and “Execution” sections.

Category B: Program

1. Name and description of the organization and program
2. Table of contents
3. Letter of endorsement from unit or installation PAO
4. Letter of endorsement from installation or major unit headquarters
5. Summary of the program’s context and purpose
6. Planning: describe the program organizers’ planning process, communication objectives, key findings and budget analysis, as appropriate.
7. Execution: provide details of the conduct of the program.
8. Effectiveness: describe what the program achieved. Concrete evidence of success and achievement of stated goals will strengthen the packet.
9. Overall value to the Army: describe the program’s importance to the sponsoring organization, installation and community. Describe how it benefitted the Army and how its costs compared to its benefits.
10. Entries may also be supported with internal and external media accounts of the program’s achievements, and relevant feedback from participants, leaders and impacted members of the community. Don’t include routine administrative documents or slide shows. Summarize internal coordination if necessary and appropriate in the “Planning” and “Execution” sections.

Category C: Special Event

1. Name and description of the organization and event
2. Table of contents
3. Letter of endorsement from unit or installation PAO
4. Letter of endorsement from installation or major unit headquarters
5. Summary of the event’s context and purpose
6. Planning: describe the event organizers’ planning process, communication objectives, key findings and budget analysis, as appropriate.
7. Execution: provide details of the conduct of the event.
8. Effectiveness: describe what the event achieved. Concrete evidence of success and achievement of stated goals will strengthen the packet.
9. Overall value to the Army: describe the event’s importance to the sponsoring organization, installation and community. Describe how it benefitted the Army and how its costs compared to its benefits.
10. Entries may also be supported with internal and external media accounts of the event’s achievements, and relevant feedback from participants, leaders and impacted members of the community. Don’t include routine administrative documents or slide shows. Summarize internal coordination if necessary and appropriate in the “Planning” and “Execution” sections.

Category D: Kathy Canham-Ross Award of Distinction

This award is presented to the highest scoring entry in categories A, B and C, recognizing extraordinary community relations contributions. The award is named for Kathy Canham-Ross, a distinguished director of OCPA-Los Angeles, who set an outstanding example to emulate throughout her 30 years as a PAO. Judges select one of the deadlocked entries by name in the event of a tie.

VI. Print Submission Guidelines and Judging Criteria

A. Submission Guidelines

(1) Submit all entries as URL links on the entry form. It is the responsibility of the command POCs to validate the link and to ensure it is accessible on Army government computers. Do not submit physical media such as discs or printed newspapers. For categories requiring submissions in “.pdf” format, the HQDA KLW POC will provide technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs.
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS
COMPETITION

(2) Articles must include bylines. Articles with dual bylines are not eligible. If no byline appeared for mechanical reasons (design or layout decisions made outside the organization, for example) submit a memorandum of authenticity from the responsible PAO attesting to the authorship of the nominee.

(3) All entries must have been published in command information outlets except where otherwise cited under the provisions of AR 360-1.

(4) No product may be entered in more than one category, except for Categories O, P and Q (JOY and “Outstanding New Writer” categories).

(5) With the exception of FORSCOM, IMCOM, NGB and USARC, all MACOMs, ASCCs, and DRUs may submit one first-place entry from the field in each print category directly to DA level. FORSCOM, IMCOM, NGB and USARC are authorized to submit up to two entries in each category.

(6) Entries must be received at HQDA by Feb. 24, 2017. Late submissions, direct submissions from subordinate units, installations and individuals, and submissions lacking required documentation will not be judged.

(7) The use of non-military facilities for production is authorized, provided eligible personnel conduct the production in accordance with Section III of this SOP.

(8) Command POCs must annotate all entries on their submission log and ensure any additional documentation required for each entry accompanies the submission.

(9) Entries not eligible to compete include, but are not limited to: civilian enterprise guides, directories, yearbooks, cruise books, publications, pamphlets, educational, training or motivational materials, or any product funded by non-appropriated funds.

B. Judging Criteria

Entries must meet the highest standards of production, execution and professional excellence, while contributing to the command information objectives of the Army. Entries will be judged on their technical excellence, creativity, originality and overall support of Army and command information themes and objectives.

VII. Print Categories

Category A: Civilian Enterprise (CE) News Publication (Unit Category) Refer to AR 360-1 for a complete explanation of what constitutes as a CE publication.
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS COMPETITION

Category B: Army Funded (AF) News Publication (Unit Category) Refer to AR 360-1 for a complete explanation of what constitutes as an AF publication.

Guidance for Categories A and B:

(1) Enter only one issue for the 2016 competition year. There is no mandatory issue date. Package all publications in a single .pdf document. Do not submit each page as a separate .pdf. Do not send hard copies.

(2) These categories must be entered as unit entries.

(3) Entries must be published under the provisions of AR 360-1 and conform to relevant policy guidance, masthead requirements and use of commercial copy.

(4) If the organization submitting an entry adheres to a special style guide or publication SOP, include it in the submission package. The document will serve only as a reference and will not be judged.

(5) Publications belong to the sponsoring regional command, even when that deployment is over. Units deployed with a stated return date must submit that field publication to the regional command they are (or were supporting) rather than their permanent regional command.

Category C: Digital Publication (Unit Category)

(1) Entries will be evaluated as they exist online during the judging period (Mar. 6-10, 2017).

(2) Must be an issue or edition such as newsletter, magazine or newspaper designed natively for the Web.

(3) This category must be entered as a unit entry.

(4) This entry must display transmedia properties (i.e., hyperlinks, embedded video, 3D imagery, slideshow) and be built on HTML 5, iFrames or some other mobile enabled platform.

Category D: Outstanding Digital Presence (Unit Category) This award recognizes the overall excellence of the official digital presence of Army organizations. It includes all the digital platforms that are used to achieve unit-level communication objectives.
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS
COMPETITION

(1) Content for the publication must be provided by PA professionals with overall management of the site(s)/publication(s) and release authority residing within the MACOM, ASCC, or DRU.

(2) The sites/platforms must conform to DoD and Army information, security review, and Web instructions and regulations. All platforms must be registered as the unit’s official presence with OCPA’s Online and Social Media Division. See www.army.mil/socialmedia.

(3) The sites/platforms must have been in existence for a minimum of three months during the program year and must be updated on a regular schedule (for example, daily, weekly).

(5) Sites/platforms will be evaluated as they exist during the judging period (Mar. 6-10, 2017).
   a. Command POCs must provide URLs and any login information.
   b. If the URLs are not workable, judges have the right to disqualify the entry.
   c. Must include at least two digital communication platforms used to achieve unit communication objectives.
   d. Entries must include an explanation of how the sites/platforms accomplished local strategic communication objectives, to include the analysis of what was achieved. Ideally, entries must include short- and long-term objectives, target audiences or communities, and - if applicable - how multimedia storytelling was used.
   e. MACOM, ASCC, and DRU POCs will forward .pdf files of explanation and entry forms using the same method used for community relations and publications categories.

Category E: Outstanding Communications Campaign (Unit Category) This award recognizes the overall excellence of a specific official communication campaign of a military unit. It includes all the digital platforms used to achieve unit-level communication objectives.

(1) Entries must include a two-page documentation package composed of:
   a. A background paper that identifies the campaign’s communication objective(s); target audience; summarizes actions taken to meet campaign objectives; and summarizes the campaign results. Papers must also include information on any other campaigns run in coordination with other organizations or broadcast stations, such as those run by the installation PAO. The campaign start date and, if applicable, the end date must be included.

b. A product and air history sheet that includes both a list of the elements produced (spots, news stories, special programs) and a brief history summary. It may continue onto a second page if necessary.

(2) At least half of the campaign must have taken place during the program year, though it may have started or ended during another year.

(3) Content for the sites must be provided by PA practitioners with overall management of the sites and release authority residing within the command.

(4) The sites must conform to AR 360-1 information, security review, and Web instructions and regulations.

(5) The sites must have been in existence for a minimum of three months during the program year and must be updated on a regular schedule (e.g., daily, weekly).

(6) The sites will be evaluated as they exist during the judging period (Mar. 6-10, 2017). If the URLs are not workable, judges have the right to disqualify the entry.

a. Entrants must provide the site URLs. Sites requiring a login or password are ineligible for entry into KLW competition.

b. Must include a minimum of two digital communication platforms used to achieve unit communication objectives.

c. Entries must include an explanation of how the platforms accomplished strategic communication objectives, to include the analysis of what was achieved. Ideally, entries must include short- and long-term objectives, target audiences or communities, and, if applicable, how multimedia storytelling was used.

NOTE: The difference between categories D and E is that E is a specific, targeted campaign, with a specified communication objective and audience. It is also conducted with a specific start and stop date.

Category F: Website/Blog (Unit Category) An organizational Internet site, hosted on a DoD-authorized domain, or “Web logs,” or “blogs,” designed to communicate Army themes, messages and other relevant information to on-line audiences.
(1) Content for the website/blog must be provided by PA professionals with overall management of the site and release authority residing within the organization.

(2) The website must conform to DoD and Army internal information, security review, and Web instructions and regulations. Consult the site at http://www.army.mil/create/ to ensure your website adheres to DA guidelines and standards. It is important that all Army organizations correctly display and represent the U.S. Army brand.

(3) The website/blog will be evaluated as it exists during the judging period. (Mar. 6-10, 2017).

(4) Units must provide the publication URL. Simply provide links and any relevant information on the entry form. Sites that require login or passwords are ineligible for entry into the KLW competition.

(5) Entries must include a background paper outlining how the blog accomplished local strategic communication objectives. Ideally, entries should include short and long-term objectives, target audiences or communities, and - if applicable - how the new media effort aligns with traditional media outreach. The background paper should also include the URL or Web address for the product.

(6) Entries must represent official command or unit content. Personal blogs are ineligible.

(7) MACOM, ASCC, and DRU POCs will forward .pdf files of background paper and entry forms using the same method used for community relations and publications categories.

Category G: News Article (Individual Category) News article entries must be straight news or sports with a clear news peg in the lead, a bridge to the body of the story and a body in descending order of importance. It must answer, at a minimum, the “who, what, when and where” of the news peg.

Category H: Feature Article (Individual Category) Feature article entries must have a focus that is maintained and supported in the lead, nut graph, body and conclusion. They can be sports, human interest or personality features.

Category I: Commentary (Individual Category) Commentaries are articles that convey the writer’s opinion on a topic, while editorials convey command position, as specified in DoDI 5120.4. Therefore, articles written by commanders or those in a leadership position are ineligible to compete in this category.
Category J: Series (Individual Category) Entries must include two or more feature articles dealing with a common theme. The articles must have been clearly identified in the original publication as parts of a series that appeared sequentially in two or more issues of the publication.

(1) Entries must follow all other specifications as entries to categories G, H and I above.

NOTE: Articles published in field newspapers may be submitted in individual categories. These individual entries are entered through their permanent regional command. For example, a National Guard Soldier contributing to a CENTCOM publication in Iraq or Afghanistan submits individual entries through the National Guard Bureau even if the unit entry went through CENTCOM.

Category K: Photojournalism (Individual Category) Entries must include a story with three to five photographs and the accompanying captions for the photographs. All elements of the submission must be the work of one photojournalist. All elements will be judged. No elements may be entered in any other category.

(1) Entries in these categories must be the work of an individual.
(2) A .pdf file of the final product is required in the submission packet.

(1) The photo must have strong elements of newsworthiness.
(2) The caption which clearly identifies the news peg must be included in the submission.
(3) A PDF of the final product is required.

(1) It must have strong subject and focus.
(2) The caption must be included in the submission.
(3) Entries should entertain or inform the reader.
(4) The essential elements are identification and action.
(5) Acceptable images are news, sports, human interest and personality feature photos.
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS COMPETITION

(6) A PDF of the final product is required.

Category N: Infographic (Individual) A single information graphic that communicates complex information quickly and clearly.

(1) May include charts, diagrams, graphs, tables, maps and lists.

(2) Must contribute to command communication objectives.

(3) Examples include historical facts, informational statistics, and training or education topics.

(4) The infographic may be printed or posted online. Submit as a .jpg, .png or .gif.

Category O: James P. Hunter Award for Outstanding New Writer (Individual Category)
The James P. Hunter Award for Outstanding New Writer recognizes excellence in Army journalism among enlisted Soldiers with less than 24 months in CMF 46. This one-time award is named in honor of SSG James P. Hunter, who died as he covered a combat patrol while serving with the 502nd Infantry Regiment, 2nd Brigade Combat Team, 101st Airborne Division in southern Afghanistan in 2010. Only Soldiers in the rank of staff sergeant and below on Jan. 1, 2016 are eligible for this award.

Only Soldiers in the rank of sergeant first class and below on Jan. 1, 2016 are eligible for this award.

Category Q: Moss-Holland Civilian Print Journalist of the Year (Individual Category)
The Moss-Holland Civilian Journalist of the Year award recognizes outstanding print journalism among Army public affairs civilians. This one-time award is named in honor of John Moss and Peggy Holland, civilian journalists who worked for the Oklahoma City Recruiting Battalion and died during the 1995 bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Only Army civilians holding the grade of GS-12 and below on Jan. 1, 2016 are eligible for this award.
Additional specifications for Categories O, P and Q.

(1) Competitors must be full-time practicing journalists contributing to a publication authorized under AR 360-1 through Dec. 31, 2016.

(2) Individuals may win a journalist of the year category only once. They remain eligible to compete in other categories during subsequent competitions.

(3) Materials submitted in support of nominees must have been produced and published during the contest year.

(4) Individuals must be nominated by their PAO. Nomination letters must include verification that any nominated Soldier meets Army height and weight standards as prescribed in AR 600-9, The Army Body Composition Program and reflects the Army Core Values. Soldiers flagged at any time during the judging and award-presentation process are ineligible to receive an award. Nominees must be serving in the active-duty Army, Reserve or National Guard through Dec. 31, 2016.

(5) Nominees must clearly exceed prescribed standards in all areas, including reporting and writing abilities, military bearing (in the case of Soldiers), moral and ethical character, and conduct. Nomination letters must discuss the candidates in their totality, not simply their technical expertise.

(6) Each entry must include the following:

a. A memorandum of nomination with regional command endorsement (see a relevant example via the Keith L. Ware link at http://www.army.mil/klw/)

b. An official digital photo, head and waist-up, in "jpg" format. Soldiers must wear his or her Class-A uniform. It is highly encouraged that this be the ASU Class-A. Exceptions may be made for individuals in a deployed environment. Deployed Soldiers may wear duty uniforms. Civilians must submit a head and shoulders color photo.

c. A one-page chronological biography of the nominee, written in third person, beginning with his or her current position and recent accomplishments.

d. Each entry must include five different examples of work by the nominee, including stories from at least three different writing categories (G, H, I, J). For example, a nomination packet might include two news stories, two features and one commentary.
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS COMPETITION

e. A memorandum of authenticity must be provided by the responsible PAO for articles that were published without a byline.

f. Category O must also include a memorandum from the responsible PAO confirming the nominee’s eligibility based on the time served within the career field.

Category R: Public Affairs Officer Rising Star of the Year (Individual Category)
This one-time award recognizes the top commissioned Army officer with less than 24 months of service in functional area 46.

(1) Competitors must be a practicing public affairs officer assigned to a unit, office, command, DOD or joint organization through Dec. 31, 2016.

(2) Materials submitted in support of nominees must have been produced and executed during the contest year.

(3) Individuals must be nominated by their higher military or civilian section OIC, Deputy PAO, PAO or commanding officer. When nominated by anyone other than the PAO or commander, one of the letters of recommendation must be written by the officer’s PAO or commander. Nomination letters must include verification that the nominated Soldier meets Army height and weight standards as prescribed in AR 600-9, The Army Body Composition Program and reflects the Army Core Values. Officers flagged at any time during the judging or award-presentation process are ineligible to receive an award. Nominees must be serving as a public affairs officer in the active-duty Army, Reserve or National Guard through Dec. 31, 2016.

(4) Nominees must clearly exceed prescribed standards in all areas, including providing media training for senior leaders, responding to media queries, planning and coordinating community events, developing and executing communication plans, evaluating the effectiveness of communication activities, supervising photojournalists and broadcasters, advising senior leaders on the implications of unit actions, communicating news and information to the internal military audience, gaining the support of the American public, military bearing, moral and ethical character, and conduct. Nomination letters must discuss the candidates in their totality, not simply their technical expertise.

(5) Each entry must include the following:

   a. A memorandum of nomination with regional command endorsement (see a relevant example via the Keith L. Ware link at http://www.army.mil/klw/)
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS COMPETITION

This is a similar practice to the other major awards in the KLW competition.

   b. A one-page chronological biography of the nominee, written in third person, beginning with his or her current position and recent accomplishments.

   c. Each may include up to five different examples of work by the nominee.

   d. At least two letters of recommendation, maximum of four (if the nominator is not the nominee’s PAO or commander, one of the recommendation letters must be written by one of these individuals)

   e. A memorandum of eligibility/authenticity must be provided by the nominator. The memorandum must confirm the nominee’s eligibility based on the time served within the career field. Additionally, it must also confirm the work submitted is that of the nominee (see Appendix G).

VIII. Broadcast Submission Guidelines and Judging Criteria

A. Submission Guidelines

(1) Submit all entries as URL links on the entry form. It is the responsibility of the command POCs to validate the link and to ensure it is accessible on Army government computers. Do not submit physical media such as discs or tapes. The HQDA KLW POC will provide technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs for categories requiring submissions in “.mp3”, Quicktime, “.mp4” or Windows Media formats.

(2) Entries must identify the producer of the piece, either by audio slug, video slate, downstream font, or anchor lead in. Products with more than one producer are not eligible for individual categories. If producer is not identified for mechanical reasons (editorial decisions made outside the organization, for example) submit a memorandum of authenticity from the responsible PAO attesting to the authorship of the nominee.

(3) All entries must have been posted or broadcast in command information outlets, except where otherwise cited under the provisions of AR 360-1.

(4) Except for Categories O, P and Q, no product may be entered in more than one category.

(5) With the exception of FORSCOM, DMA, NGB and USARC, all MACOMs, ASCCs, and DRUs may submit one first-place entry from the field in each broadcast category directly to DA level. FORSCOM, DMA, NGB and USARC are authorized to submit up to two entries in each category.

(6) Entries must be received at HQDA by Feb. 24, 2017. Late submissions, direct submissions from subordinate units, installations and individuals, and submissions lacking required documentation will not be judged.

(7) The use of non-military facilities for production is authorized, provided eligible personnel conduct the production in accordance with Section III of this SOP.

(8) Command POCs must annotate all entries on their submission log and ensure any additional documentation required for each entry accompanies the submission.

(9) All entries that use commercial music, video and graphics must adhere to U.S. copyright laws. Such submissions must include written copyright authorization from the production company that generated the material. Entries produced for DMA are exempt. Regardless, all entries with commercial music must be submitted “as aired” on the original DMA broadcast/webcast and not altered in any way.

D. Judging Criteria

Entries must meet the highest standards of production, execution and professional excellence, while contributing to the command information objectives of the Army. Entries will be judged for their technical excellence, creativity, originality and overall support of Army and command information themes and objectives.

IX. Broadcast Categories

X. Visual Information Submission Guidelines and Judging Criteria

A. Submission Guidelines

Submit all entries as URL links on the entry form. It is the responsibility of the command POCs to validate the link and to ensure it is accessible on Army government computers. Do not submit physical media such as discs or tapes. The HQDA KLW POC will provide technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs for categories requiring submissions in ".mp3", Quicktime, ".mp4", JPEG file or Windows Media formats.

B. Judging Criteria

Entries must meet the highest standards of production, execution and professional excellence, while contributing to the command information objectives of the Army. Entries will be judged on their technical excellence, creativity, originality and overall support of Army and command information themes and objectives.

XI. Visual Information Categories

Category A: Digital Art (Individual Category) Original artwork created entirely by digital means. Examples of artwork accepted in this category are digital paintings, vector art, 3D renderings, etc. A still photograph enhanced by digital means is allowed; however, animation is not. Submit entry as a high-resolution JPEG file.

Category B: Identity Design (Individual Category) This category includes original artwork that represents a logo or crest that was used in some kind of official military capacity. Examples include unit coin designs, team logos and unit crests. An entry entered in the Digital Art category cannot be entered in this category. All unit crests must have been approved by the appropriate office of heraldry prior to entry. Submit entry as a high-resolution JPEG file.

Category C: Layout and Design (Individual Category) This category includes a single-page or double-truck layout created using elements from various sources. All layout and design work must be completed by the entrant, but elements can come from other sources. Examples include interactive PDFs, info charts and info graphics, flyers, certificates, CD covers, cover art and posters. An entry created and entered as a Digital Art entry cannot be entered in this category. For example, adding elements to a Digital Art entry and submitting it as a Layout and Design entry. Using a Digital Art entry as part of the layout is also not permitted. Submit entry as a high-resolution JPEG file.

Category D: Operational Documentation (Individual Category) Entries will depict the U.S. military’s participation in a Joint or Service operation or contingency. Photo will depict real-world operations to include combat operations, disaster relief, and any contingency event not related to training, exercise or simulation. Submit as a JPEG file.

Category E: Training Documentation (Individual Category) Entries will depict the U.S. military's participation in a Joint or Service exercise, or other training event. Submit as a JPEG file.

Category F: Multimedia Story (Individual Category) Entries must illustrate the use of visual storytelling techniques across multiple digital mediums while telling a story. All forms of media are allowed. Entry may be a narrative feature, personality or news journalism piece. May not include dramatization.

Category G: Picture Story (Individual Category) A series of pictures that reveal a storyline or a single theme. A composite picture story layout is not required. Submit at least seven but no more than 12 photos. Submit as JPEG files. VIRINs must be sequential, using the series field to attribute the proper and intended order.

Category H: Portrait (Individual Category) A picture of a person that identifies and captures the essence of that person's character and depicts his or her personality. Official photos not allowed. Submit entry as a JPEG file.

Category I: Pictorial (Individual Category) A photograph that enhances the visual qualities of the subject with primary emphasis on composition and aesthetics. Expresses beauty, tension, harmony, chaos and other abstract concepts through composition, and tonal and color relationships more than through human interaction and features a military organization, employees, equipment or family members. Silhouettes, sunsets or photographs of military hardware are permitted in this category. Submit as a JPEG file.

Category J: Military Graphic Artist of the Year (Individual) Candidates must submit a portfolio containing no less than six and no more than eight entries with at least one entry from the Digital Art category and one from the Layout and Design category. Candidates also must submit a one-page biography and a digital photograph with their portfolio; they will not be judged. The biography, submitted as an OCR scanned PDF, and the photo, submitted as a separate JPEG file, must be cleared by the local public affairs office.

Category K: Civilian Graphic Artist of the Year (Individual) Candidates for the Civilian Graphic Artist of the Year must submit a portfolio containing no less than six and no more than eight entries with at least one entry from the Digital Art category and one from the Layout and Design category. Candidates also must submit a one-page biography and a digital photograph with their portfolio; they will not be judged. The biography, submitted as an OCR scanned PDF, and the photo, submitted as a separate JPEG file, must be cleared by the local public affairs office.

Category L: Military Videographer of the Year (Individual) Candidates must submit three video products: one from one of the two video documentation categories, one from the video feature story category and one from either of the multimedia, video spot or video series categories. Only one video of a video series is required. Entry in its entirety may not exceed 15 minutes. Judges are briefed on the descriptions of the categories. Failure to properly categorize the videos will result in the disqualification of the entire portfolio. Candidates also must submit a one-page biography and a digital photograph with their portfolio; they will not be judged. The biography, submitted as an OCR scanned PDF, and the photo, submitted as a separate JPEG file, must be cleared by the local public affairs office.

Category M: Civilian Videographer of the Year (Individual) Candidates must submit three video products: one from one of the two video documentation categories, one from the video feature story category and one from either of the multimedia, video spot or video series categories. Only one video of a video series is required. Entry in its entirety may not exceed 15 minutes. Judges are briefed on the descriptions of the categories. Failure to properly categorize the videos will result in the judges disqualifying the entire entry. Candidates also must submit a one-page biography and a digital photograph with their portfolio; they will not be judged. The biography, submitted as an OCR scanned PDF, and the photo, submitted as a separate JPEG file, must be cleared by the local public affairs office.

Category N: Military Photographer of the Year (Individual) Candidates must submit a portfolio consisting of at least eight but no more than 10 entries with at least one from one of the two documentation categories, one picture story, one news photo, one feature photo and one portrait. Portfolio may NOT include pictorial, photojournalism or multimedia story entries, and will include only one picture story. Candidates also must submit a one-page biography and a digital photograph with their portfolio; they will not be judged. The biography, submitted as an OCR scanned PDF, and the photo, submitted as a separate JPEG file, must be cleared by the local public affairs office. Submit photos as JPEG files.

Category O: Civilian Photographer of the Year (Individual) Candidates must submit a portfolio consisting of at least eight but no more than 10 entries with at least one from one of the two documentation categories, one picture story, one news photo, one feature photo and one portrait. Portfolio may NOT include pictorial, photojournalism or multimedia story entries, and will include only one picture story. Candidates also must submit a one-page biography and a digital photograph with their portfolio; they will not be judged. The biography, submitted as an OCR scanned PDF, and the photo, submitted as a separate JPEG file, must be cleared by the local public affairs office. Submit photos as JPEG files.
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. Ware COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS
COMPETITION

Category P: Defense Communicator of the Year (Individual) Candidates must submit a portfolio consisting of seven products of the following media: graphic arts, photographs, published articles or videos. Four products must deal with a common theme and consist of at least three different types of media. The remaining three products are at the candidate’s discretion consisting of at least two different types of media. Candidates do not have to enter examples of all four media types, but the portfolio should contain at least three different types of media demonstrating the candidate’s ability to communicate using various media. Candidates must submit a certificate of authenticity from the responsible public affairs officer if an article was published without a byline. The Defense Communicator of the Year category is open to both military and civilian personnel as long as they meet the eligibly criteria listed in Section I. However, individuals who elect to compete in the Defense Communicator of the Year category may not simultaneously enter the graphic artist, journalist, photographer or videographer of-the-year categories during the same competition year. Candidates also must submit a one-page biography and a digital photograph with their portfolio; they will not be judged. The biography, submitted as an OCR scanned PDF, and the photo, submitted as a separate JPEG file, must be cleared by the local public affairs office. Submit articles and certificates of authenticity, if applicable, as PDFs and photos as JPEG files. If the products may also be found online, provide URLs. PDF and online versions must be the same.

XII. Additional Technical Guidance

A. Submission Procedures

(1) The designated MACOM, ASCC or DRU representative will submit their KLW submissions via DVIDS. The HQDA KLW POC will provide technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs.

(2) MACOM, ASCC or DRU representatives will create a master unit folder, with appropriate subfolders for each category, and place all relevant supporting materials in the designated folder. Name all files IAW KLW guidance. For example:

i. A USARCENT POC entering CPL Walter O’Reily in Broadcast Category N should create a master folder named “USARCENT”
ii. In that folder create another called “USARCENT_BCAT_N_USA_OReily”
iii. Place the following documents
   “USARCENT_BCAT_N_USA_OReilyEligibilityMemo.pdf”

36
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L.WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS COMPETITION

Do not submit unnamed materials along the lines of "doc1.pdf"

(3) Submit entries in ".pdf", ".mp3", Quicktime, ".mp4" or Windows Media formats. Files cannot exceed 500 MB in size.

B. Audio Submissions

(1) Submit all entries as URL links on the entry form. It is the responsibility of the command POCs to validate the link and to ensure it is accessible on Army government computers. Do not submit physical media such as discs or tapes. The HQDA KLW POC will provide technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs, for categories requiring submissions in ".mp3", Quicktime, ".mp4" or Windows Media formats.

(2) Digital media files should be .MP3 format and are capable of automatic playing using common player software (not less than approximately 128 bps).

(3) Each audio entry must include the following elements, in order:

   a. Audio slug. The audio slug includes the title of the entry, the name of the primary contributor, the target audience and total run time of the entry.

   b. Two seconds of silence

   c. The entry

C. Video Submissions

(1) Audio will be mixed down for all entries.

(2) Each entry must have the following elements in order:

   a. A 10-second slate, including the lead and tag for Categories J–L

   b. Five seconds of black

   c. The entry

(3) Entries should be “as aired” versions that include downstream fonts and graphics. Add font information to the 10-second lead/tag slate for products in which the information no longer appears.
(4) Preferred file format is Quicktime H.264, but Windows Media Video (WMV) 9 Advanced is acceptable. Video files can be Standard Definition or High Definition. SD should be 720 x 480 widescreen or standard. HD cannot exceed 1280 x 720.

   a. For Quicktime H.264, choose a "medium" video compression quality. Audio can be MP3, WAV, or AAC with "Lossless" or "Uncompressed" quality.

   b. For Windows, use the Windows Media Video 9 Advanced codec. Choose a variable bit rate with "medium".
Using the fillable PDF forms found at http://www.army.mil/klw/, competitors will enter their competition data and will CAC sign the document. Instructions on how to sign are outlined on the form. The required leadership levels will also CAC sign. Lastly the MACOM, ASCC or DRU POC will CAC sign the submission forms. These POCs will transmit their organization’s KLW submissions using DVIDS. The HQDA KLW POC will provide technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs. Please utilize file compression (zip files) where possible and transmit submissions as close together as possible to eliminate the trickle-in effect. POC’s experiencing problems using DVIDS should contact the HQDA KLW POC immediately. Staff will not accept submission forms which are reproduced locally and submitted using any other method. SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship

In 1999, the Army and the Association of the United States Army formed a partnership as a tribute to Sergeant Major Dawn Kilpatrick and her 20 years of service to this nation. She died at her home in Herndon, Va., May 23, 1999, after a two-year battle with cervical cancer and eight days after she retired. SGM Kilpatrick was laid to rest at Arlington National Cemetery on May 27, 1999.

The Office of the Chief of Public Affairs established an ongoing scholarship in her name—The SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship.

The scholarship is designed to allow mid-level and senior noncommissioned officers the opportunity to compete for an educational scholarship grant. This grant is intended to assist NCOs in achieving their educational goals.

The recipients of this scholarship are NCOs who best exemplify the Army’s vision and influence others in shaping future leaders while practicing excellent stewardship of the nation’s most precious resource - our Soldiers.

The SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship recipient will receive a $4,000.00 check for tuition assistance, books and associated fees connected with their educational expenses. The recipient will also receive a laptop computer and trophy from the AUSA.

In order to be eligible, the NCO’s leadership must submit the nomination by the application deadline. Specific requirements: must be in the Active component, Army Reserve or Army National Guard; a CMF 46 sergeant to sergeant major with less than 18 years of active service; hold a primary MOS of 46Q, 46R or 46Z. In addition, the Soldier must be in an indefinite status or have at least 3 years remaining in service upon receipt of the scholarship.

To compete for the SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship, Soldiers who meet the above eligibility criteria must submit the following in a digital packet:

- An Enlisted Record Brief (showing time in service remaining), official DA photograph, and copies of last two APFT and last two NCOERs.
- A supervisor’s recommendation is required for the basis of the selection and is used for AUSA publicity of the scholarship and the Soldier. Supervisors should include how the nominee best exemplifies the Army’s vision, cares for Soldiers, and works toward shaping our future leaders. The recommendation will address the NCO’s leadership traits to include: responsibility, initiative, adaptability, competence and resilience.
SUBJECT: 2016 MG KEITH L. WARE COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS
COMPETITION

- A separate supervisor’s memorandum is required that states the Soldier meets Army height and weight standards and is not flagged.
- An endorsement memorandum from the first CMF 46 sergeant major in the applicant’s chain of command is highly encouraged.
- A 1,000 word essay from the nominee on how he or she can impact the future of Army public affairs.

For application questions or submissions, contact the HQDA KLW POC at 301-677-7282.
